

HELP THE KENTUCKY CHILDRENS ORPHANS HOME.

THE GREATEST INVESTMENT THAT CAN BE MADE Is In Boys And Girls.

These prominent and philanthropic people are among those who are members of the Board of Managers of the Kentucky Children's Home Society:

Judge Robert W. Hingham, of Louisville.

Dr. E. L. Powell,

Judge Walter P. Lincoln.

Dr. Charles W. Welch,

Judge Harry W. Robinson,

Rev. Charles E. Woodcock,

Mrs. George L. Danforth,

Mrs. Charles P. Weaver,

Mrs. Arthur Kaye,

Mrs. A. T. Bert,

Mrs. George C. Long,

Judge Hugh Riddell, Irvine Ky.

Miss Jennie Higgins, the efficient Superintendent of Garrard County Schools is organizing the county schools in a very thorough manner.

The children of all the schools are enthusiastic in saying that they want to help build a new and better home for those less fortunate than they.

Governor James D. Black, and State Superintendent of Public Schools, V. O. Gilbert, and many other prominent people of the State, endorse and ask your aid in providing a home for the unfortunates who have no one to look after them and no chance in the world unless you are willing to help. Are you going to turn the Orphan's Home down and say that you cannot afford it? In the fact unexampled prosperity of the past five years can you refuse to lend a helping hand to those who cannot help themselves. We believe the good people of Garrard County will give generously to this worthy cause, managed by a board of the very highest standing. These orphans of Kentucky are entitled to plenty of fresh air and sunshine and a home where they can receive the best of treatment and attention and they are going to get it. How much are you going to give?

"It is more beautiful to give than to receive." A home built for children with homes should appeal to every man and woman in Garrard County. The children of the Public Schools of Garrard County—your children—ask and want a home built for those who are not so fortunate as they. Are you going to refuse to help this cause? We do not believe you will.

LOST—Blue serge cape, collar lined with green satin. Lost between Stanford and Lancaster on Friday October 3rd. Reward. (Call this office, or phone 352-X. 9-21.

Are you willing to give a homeless boy a chance to become a useful citizen? Then help the Kentucky Orphan's Home. This worthy institution is helping hundreds every year.

Pie Supper.

There will be a pie supper at Union school house Friday night, October 17th, for the benefit of the Orphans Home Club. Beginning at 8 o'clock, every body invited to come and bring a pie.

Farmers Buy Tankage.

The farmers of Washington county are buying large quantities of tankage to supplement the corn fed to their hogs. Lately a group of farmers bought a carload of tankage. As one pound of this high-protein feed is given with every ten pounds of corn it means that a large number of hogs will be fed a balanced ration.

Farmers Visit Station.

Thirty automobile loads of farmers, their wives and their children from Jefferson county, visited the Experiment Station the 26th and 27th of last month. This delegation which numbered one hundred and twenty five, spent the twenty-sixth inspecting the Experiment Station and the farm. The second day was devoted to visits to the many large breeding establishments about Lexington.

Delegation Visits Fair.

Conferland County, 40 miles from a railroad, sent a delegation of twenty farmers to the State Fair. The County agent in writing to your correspondent of the trip said:

"Our purpose in attending the fair was not to spin Roulette wheels, go through the Bughouse, ride the Joy ride or the Merry-go-round, but to make a thorough study of the exhibits. Much of our time was spent in making a careful study of the various types of farm tractors, the good and bad points of home lighting plants and other home conveniences."

Back From Arkansas.

Mr. John N. Ross returned from Arkansas last Friday afternoon, where he had gone to look after his large plantation that he has recently purchased in that state. Mr. Ross is very much elated over the farm situation in this state and says next to Kentucky, he believes it is the best state on the map. He expects to grow a large quantity of rice and says the farm which he has purchased is readily adapted for this cereal. He brought back a sample of the rice raised on this farm and it looks mighty good to us. He has rented the plantation for 1920 and will live next year on the farm he recently rented near Kicksville.

The people of this community will regret to lose this splendid family and all hope they will soon decide to return to old Garrard the best county on the map.

Paint Lick

Defeats Ruthton.

Paint Lick High School defeated Ruthton in a one sided game last Saturday on the former grounds.

Kuhlman was in the box for Paint Lick, but the fact that he allowed but six scattered hits, which were as scattered as soda fountains in the Sahara.

The fielding back of him was nothing short of superb. Every Paint Lick player was on tip-toe, vigorous, confident and aggressive.

They handled seemingly hits, in a way to discourage all opposition, and fielded with the greatest dash and brilliancy.

MEETING CLOSES

Baby Additions Added to Baptist Church.

One of the most successful and interesting meetings that has ever been conducted in Lancaster, closed last Friday evening after a series of services at the Baptist church in this city. Dr. Johnson during the time he was in our midst, endeared himself to the people of this community and long before the time set for the services to begin the auditorium was filled and many desiring to enter were turned away.

The last services were conducted at the school auditorium, which was filled to overflowing, even to the balcony and many were on the outside in automobiles, drawn near the windows, to hear the gifted speaker.

There were twenty-seven additions to the church, by confession and many more were added by letter. The baptizing will be held at the residence of Mr. T. C. Rankin, next Sunday afternoon.

SOMETHING

Every Tobacco Grower Should Know About.

Garrard's New Tobacco Warehouse.

In our issue a few weeks ago we ran a picture of the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse on our front page. This well equipped house is now nearing completion and is by far the best one in the state and so arranged that nothing is left undone for the accommodation of the growers as well as the buyers.

Let us give you some of the facts about this house and which we hope every tobacco grower in this and adjoining counties will read.

The men connected with it have been selling their tobacco over the floors of other houses in other towns for years and know your point of view from a growers standpoint.

They have therefore not spared the cost in making this house the most evenly lighted sales warehouse in the world, having twice the number of skylights of any other house of the same size, in addition to being electrically lighted. It has a 290 foot front and is 220 feet deep, 2 floors, three main driveways from front to rear, two 20 feet and one 27 feet, in addition to a 20 foot driveway under the sales floors across the rear, connecting the above mentioned driveways, to and from 20 foot driveways on the north and south sides of the warehouse, for the use of empty wagons leaving without coming through the warehouse.

Accommodations are ample in the two wagon and three wagon drives for 100 wagons inside the house. In the stalls under the sales floor we can accommodate 250 horses in warm box stalls, which will be free to all customers.

There is 42,000 feet of sales floor, divided into two floors, with separate scales on each floor.

It has 30,000 square feet of prizeing floor to take care of the tobacco off the sales floor, and never delay the unloading of your tobacco for lack of floor or wagon room.

They have provided warm rooms for their customers and their drivers to wait in on the sales floor. The business offices are on the second floor with stairways leading from both sales floors to the offices.

To command the highest price for your tobacco, it is necessary to accommodate the largest and best buyers, and equip for them their prizeing rooms in a way to handle their purchases of tobacco at a minimum cost. The prizeing rooms are the best designed in Kentucky, with the tobacco moving off the sales floor into the prizeing rooms without drayage, then into the hogheads, and to a lower floor on a level with the railroad car. We have built and own a side track adjoining the prizeing rooms that has accommodations for 14 cars.

We believe this to be the most complete Loose Leaf Sales Warehouse in Kentucky. We want you to inspect it during the fall months, believing that after you have seen this plant you will bring your tobacco to this market. They are equipping the prizeing rooms with hydraulic presses. They have accommodations for the largest buyers of tobacco, and they have contracted to buy here. We want you to make it

KILLING

Will Denton Killed Here Last Saturday.

Andy Beazley shot and fatally wounded William Denton last Saturday afternoon about six o'clock, the shooting taking place in the rear of the county barn on Third street. Both parties are colored and neither up to this time had ever been in any serious trouble before.

Denton was shot three times, two shots entering the head, the other the body, from the effects of which he died about twenty minutes later, while being carried to his home in Middleboro.

A great deal of feelings has existed between the parties for several days, coming up over the selection of a teacher for the colored school in Middleboro. Both parties were working for the county on the Huckleberry pike and had several quarrels during the day last Saturday.

When they returned to the barn that evening and were putting up their teams the quarrel was renewed, what came up at that time could not be learned, as there were no eye witnesses and Beazley refuses to talk under the advice of his counsel. The examining trial will be held next Saturday morning before Judge Stapp.

Immediately after the shooting Beazley gave himself up and is now in jail, awaiting his examining trial.

DON'T FORGET

That Swinebroad, The Real Estate Man.

Will sell at PUBLIC AUCTION for J. W. Smith and Theo Currey on SATURDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 25th, 2 o'clock, 2 brand new houses, modern and well built, just one mile Lancaster, on Danville pike, with about 5 acres with each house, also some Building Lots and "Baby Farms", adjoining so you can get 10 to 15 acres with each house if you want it. There is also a large tobacco barn on one of the tracts, 43 acres in all. Part of the Cook farm.

Barnett Sale A Success.

The personality sale of Mr. C. R. Barnett held last week at his home on the Richmond pike was a decided success. All stock and implements selling well. Cows brought from $135. to $155; one nice heavy mare brought $247.50; a pair of yearling mules brought $300 and corn brought $8.00 a barrel at the heap.

Friends and neighbors will regret to give up Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, for they have made many friends since coming into Garrard about two years ago. They have purchased property in Richmond and will move there soon.

Foot Ball Game Here.

The first game of Foot Ball to be played on the local gridiron will take place next Friday afternoon when the fast little team from Nicholasville will "Mix Em Up" with the local boys.

The game will be called promptly at 3:30 and a large crowd should go out and root for the home boys.

The boys have been practicing hard each afternoon this week in order that victory will await them to-morrow.

Captain Todd Elliott has a fast little team and all they need is the backing of the citizens that we are sure will see this game.

Baptizing

All those who joined the Lancaster Baptist Church upon a profession of faith during the recent revival conducted at that church will be baptized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the old baptizing hole near Mr. Tom Rankins, on Hubble pike. A way will be provided for every candidate for baptism, who does not have a way to go. There are 27 for baptism and it is hoped all will be present.

That evening at 7:30, at the Baptist Church the new members will be welcomed into our fellowship. The most important address of the year will be delivered that evening at the Baptist church by Prof. John L. Hill. It is very important that all Baptists be present that evening, any others who may wish to come are cordially invited.

C. D. Strother, pastor.

ANOTHER BIG SALE

Of Aberdeen-Angus Cattle To Be Conducted by Bradshaw Brothers.

People have hardly stopped talking of the splendid sale of Aberdeen-Angus cattle held in this city last May by Messrs A. D. and Walker Bradshaw before these progressive young men have announced another still larger that will be pulled off at the ANGUS-LAND STOCK FARM, near Lancaster, on Wednesday, October 22nd, an advertisement of which appears in this issue of the Record. In next weeks issue they have engaged a page space to tell the people of the extraordinary offerings that will go under the hammer on this day. Among the offerings will be such blood as Blackcaps, Blackbirds, Ericas, Lady Idas, Pride of Aberdeen Queen Mothers, Heatherblooms, Brucehill Violets, in fact all of the popular families will be represented at this sale.

There is no breed of beef cattle that hold such a record in the show ring as the Aberdeen-Angus.

There will be forty head sold at this sale, consisting of bulls, cows, and heifers and every one an Eye Opener.

Remember the date and don't fail to attend this sale.

Loses Hogs.

Messrs Brown and Lawson had the misfortune to lose 16 large hogs from overhead, while being shipped to Cincinnati last week. This number were found dead in the car upon its arrival in the city. The loss is fully $500.00.

Ruble Farm Sells.

The Thomas Realty Company sold the J. B. Ruble farm last Tuesday morning as advertised and the sale only lasted about two hours.

The home tract of 100 acres was purchased by Joe Hamilton, at $262. an acre, 99 acres went to Gene Ruble at $200, an acre and 96 acres to Mr. J. L. Wilson, of Jessamine, for $186. The farm averaged about $220.

Hendrickson.

Mrs. C. C. Hendrickson, aged 57 years died at her home on the Lexington pike last Saturday morning after a short illness of heart trouble. Only a few days ago, her sister, Mrs. Mose Dorton passed away, and it is thought that the loss of her devoted sister, may have hastened her death. The burial took place at the Lancaster cemetery last Sunday, the services being conducted by Rev. C. D. Strother, of the Baptist church, of which the deceased was a faithful member.

To-Night.

All members of the American Legion of Post Heidelberg No. 35 and all Veterans whether you are a member of this Post or not are cordially asked and invited to meet at the Police Court Room, tonight at 7:45.

This will be the first meeting of the local Post and quite an interesting program is assured.

Dr. V. G. Kinnaird, Post Commander who was a delegate to the State Convention will tell of the work that was done at this Convention and he will also give a welcome address to all present.

Be sure to be on hand promptly at 7:45.

Foot Ball.

The L. H. S. Foot Ball Team went down in defeat by the Danville Boys Friday afternoon by the score of 19 to 0.

The game was played on Cheek Field, Danville, and was one of the best High School games of the season, the local boys never gave up and although being out weighed they fought to the very last.

Each and everyone of the local boys showed that he was full of energy and tried to do their best to bring Victory and Glory to the Lancaster High, however, the playing of Walker Robinson was admired by not only the rooters of this place but by Danville as well.

The next game will be played to-morrow against Nicholasville High School and a good crowd should go out and encourage the boys.

MISLEADING

Is Literature Issued By Republican Campaign Committee.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2.—"Among the misleading literature issued by the Republican Campaign Committee is a statement in regard to the Insurance Rating Board to the effect that it has 'cost the tax payers of Kentucky in three years $77,918.34 in salaries and traveling expenses'. The statement includes a question 'What has the Insurance Rating Board done for you?' Said Thomas S. Rhea, Chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee today:

"The Insurance Rating Board does not cost the tax payers of Kentucky a red cent", the Chairman continued. "The expense of maintaining the Board is provided for by a special assessment levied against the insurance companies, and not a red cent has been or can be drawn from the State Treasury to pay any of the expense of this office. The year 1916 practically ended the first five years of the Rating Board, and during that five-year period fire insurance in Kentucky cost an average of $12.50 on each $1000 of insurance. For the five years prior to the creation of the Insurance Rating Board, the cost per thousand dollars of insurance was $13.30, a saving of $1.10 a thousand or TWO AND A QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS to the property owners of Kentucky in these five years."

"In this reduction the farmers of Kentucky profited to the extent of $120,000 a year, because their rate was reduced 12 per cent, and they saved $500,000 during these five years. The reduction of the whole country for the five years was 90 cents a thousand. Kentucky's reduction being 20 cents a thousand under the National average, or about $400,000 more saved to the policy holders of Kentucky, more than to the people of the other states as a whole."

"The companies re-rated mercantile properties in Kentucky to show an increase of 36 per cent. The Insurance Rating Board compelled the withdrawal of these rates and the reinstatement of the old ones, saving the owners of mercantile buildings and stocks $200,000 a year for two years. Only recently the taking off of the war surcharge on fire insurance policies written in Kentucky, has saved the property owners of the state $2,000 a day. The companies seemed reluctant to take off this charge and Chairman N. O. Gray, of the Commission, cited them to appear before him to show cause why the surcharge should not be taken off. They took it off."

"Inspection under this direction of the Board has saved the state thousands of dollars in rates on its own property, obtained by the correction of defects, and a consequent reduction in rates. The fact is, that the Insurance Rating Board has saved the people of the State many times the entire cost of the administrations of the office since its establishment."

"The attack on the Insurance Rating Board is only another part of the general Republican plan to discredit any and every action of the Democratic administration in Kentucky. No one is likely to be deceived by it, and least of all, the property owners, whose insurance has cost them in the last five years $2,250,000 less than it cost them the preceding five years."

The greatest investment that can be made is in boys and girls. Help the Children's Orphan Home.

STOVES - - STOVES

Reduce the High Cost of Living

A fuel shortage and higher prices are predicted for this winter. Why rebel at the high cost of living and do nothing to lower it? Last winter there was a reason for not buying anything that you could possibly do without but now there is no reason for not buying what you need and to keep on wasting fuel by using an old worn out stove will certainly not reduce the high cost of living.

For heating purposes our line of COLE'S HOT BLAST HEATERS and MOORE'S AIR TIGHT HEATERS cannot be surpassed. They give as much heat as any stove and use 25 per cent. less fuel. The government used thousands of these in France and at home. Your boy was probably warmed by one while serving Uncle Sam.

For the kitchen, MAJESTIC AND FAVORITE RANGES stand in a class by themselves. If you are interested in buying a range, it will pay you to see what we have to offer. Our Furniture Department will be glad to tell you about our stoves even tho you do not wish to buy a stove now. We have the largest stock of stoves that can be found in Kentucky. We can supply your wants and guarantee satisfaction.

THE BEST INSURANCE

AGAINST INFLUENZA

Prominent Educator Believes That Vapomentha Is A Sure Preventive.

Dr. R. M. Brame, discoverer of Brame's Vapomentha Salve, has a letter from C. C. Wright, Superintendent of the Wilkes County, N. C., Public Schools, in which he says: "We have used Brame's Vapomentha Salve for nearly all the ills for which it is prescribed and have always secured satisfactory results. If used in time it has never failed to break up colds, usually the forerunner of Grippe, Influenza and Pneumonia. I speak from personal observation. I believe if this preparation is used in time it will prevent the development of pneumonia in every instance, if used according to directions."

These strong statements are fully justified by the remarkable recoveries that follow. Brame's Vapomentha Salve is applied freely over the chest and throat and inserted in each nostril. Brame's Vapomentha Salve penetrates the pores of the skin, relieving congestion, at the same time healing vapors arise and are breathed through the mouth and nose, loosening the phlegm and causing the patient to breathe freely. Its absolute reliability is evidenced by dozens of unsolicited testimonials. Brame's Vapomentha Salve will relieve pneumonia, influenza, grippé, pleurisy, bronchitis, whooping cough, catarrh, asthma, tonsillitis, hay fever and inflammation of the skin.

Vapomentha is applied externally, and it will not stain the clothes, as other salves do. No home should ever be without it. Buy it from your druggist or direct from the Brame Drug Co., North Wilkesboro, N. C. A small bottle costs 30c, a much larger one, containing six times as much $1.20.

Taxes Going Up; Teachers Underpaid

Under Stanley Democratic rule, in the three years 1915-1918, the equalized value of all property assessed for taxation in Kentucky has increased the enormous sum of $27,278,481.11. During the same period, the amount distributed by the state to the counties to pay the salaries of school teachers has only increased the pitiful sum of $45,734.37.

Stanley O. K's Pay Cut

In 1918 a Democratic legislature passed a law and it was approved by Governor Stanley, March 18, 1918, cutting down the amount of money for school teachers' salaries from 20 cents to 15 cents, and many teachers were forced to quit their jobs altogether or to seek positions in other states.

The School Teachers' Merry-Go-Round

The records show that in 40 counties in Kentucky, the salaries of school teachers were more in 1914 than in 1917, 1918 and 1919. They also show that in 71 counties the salaries were more in 1914 than in 1917 and 1918. This has forced hundreds of teachers to travel from one county to another seeking better pay to meet the high cost of living. In one county in Kentucky, out of 104 teachers last year, only 22 returned this year. In another county only seven out of 48 returned. In another county only 5 out of 15 returned. In one of the largest and best counties of the state only one rural teacher has not changed location within the past five years.

Holding Up the Teachers' Pay

In the same month that Governor Stanley approved the law cutting down the teachers' salaries, the state owed the teachers for back pay, $248,372.00. Three months later this amount had jumped to $1,452,897.94. On June 30, this year, the state still owed the teachers for back pay $881,434.87. In 1917, the first month's salary was paid in October after three and a half months of teaching. The third payment was not made until August, 1919, eight months after the close of the school. Last year a law was passed to remedy this, but at that salaries are still running late. In addition to having their salaries cut, the teachers also have their pay held up.

Cutting Down the School Year

Three months after Governor Stanley signed the bill cutting down the teachers' pay, the school year was cut from 7 months to 6 months. The children were deprived of a whole month's schooling. This year, the school year ending June 10, 1920, was kept at 6 months instead of being put back to 7 months, thus depriving the children of another month's schooling. Twelve months' schooling in two years in place of 14 months.

Gilbert's "Sore Too" Book

Supt. Gilbert's printing bill is costing the taxpayers three times what they paid under Governor Willson (Republican). Among the books paid for by the taxpayers at a cost of $16,000, was the famous "Sore Too" book, compiled by the equally famous Dr. W. L. Helser, whose "Physiology" was ridiculed by the leading Democratic newspapers of the state. This "Sore Too" book tells little Johnnie how to wrap up a "puncture" in his foot, warns little Janette not to eat meat more than once a day, tells on dad to shave off his whiskers, advises mother to wash an egg before boiling it, and demands the killing of all dogs and cats.

Gilbert's Extravagance

The minute Supt. Gilbert got into office he began filling up his own office, at Frankfort, with clerks and stenographers. The salaries in his department have gone up to three times what they were under Governor Willson. The published "The Democratic legislative proclamation of 1918 condemned the Bureau of School Inspection for giving salaries to people who did no work, but there has been practically no change. Tomorrow will change it.

Text Book Commission Farce

The Stanley Text Book Commission changed most of the books in the grades and would have soaked the parents of the children $800,000 more for their books, but the whole adoption was thrown out by the Court of Appeals. Urged by leading Democrats all over the state to also throw out the Text Book Commission, Governor Black turned a deaf ear and by the time a new adoption was made the publishers were so delayed that many schools have been forced to get along with old books, and some of them won't get the new books at all for proper work this year.

Happiness in Appreciation.
Happiness comes not from the power of possession, but from the power of appreciation. Above most other things it is wise to cultivate the powers of appreciation. The greater the number of steps on an organ the greater its possibilities as an instrument of music.—H. W. Sylvester.

Explaining Geysers.
In a word, the whole secret of the intermittent geyser lies in a subterranean reservoir, the contents of which are forced out by steam expansion every time it gets filled up. The Yellowstone park is a region which not so very long ago was fiercely volcanic. In that role it has ceased to play an alarming part, but locally the earth's crust is extremely thin. A very literal hell reigns not far beneath the places frequented by tourists, and thence is derived the heat that causes the outbursts of the geysers.

"Indian Summer."
According to William Henry Pyffe's 5,000 facts, Indian summer is the early part of November. The name was derived not from the state of weather, but from the fact the weather being mild and balmy the Indians used that period to harvest their corn, and it lasted blue days and came just before winter set in. This season corresponds to the days known as "St. Martin's summer" in England and the Mediterranean countries, although this season in the mentioned countries comes in the fall just before our Indian summer.

Lane.

On Tuesday morning, September 16th, the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. Ed Lane and claimed for its victim, his darling wife, who had been ill of typhoid fever for the past seven weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Merida. Mrs. Lane was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merida and was born in Knox county in 1893. If she had lived until November 22nd, she would have been 26 years of age. She was married to Mr. Ed Lane, 8 years ago—and was blessed with three little sons who will so miss the tender care of a mother. For several months Mrs. Lane had resided in Hamilton Ohio, and had only been back in Garrard county a few weeks—seems that God just brought her back to die at home.

Mrs. Lane united with the church at Good Hope in early life. She was loved by all who knew and possessed a beautiful christian character.

Besides her husband and three small children Mrs. Lane is survived by her parents and five sisters and three brothers.

Funeral services were conducted at the Lancaster cemetery by Rev. C. D. Strother, of the Baptist Church, and she was laid to rest there by her little brother, Cecil.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their hour of trouble, but may they meet their loved one in that Home Above.

In Memory.

DORTON.

Sad, but oh how true that the death angel visits us all, and takes from us the best there is.

The saddest hour in the history of the life of this dear husband and children was when Jesus sent his angel at the noon-time hour Friday, Sept. 26th and took from them their dear wife and mother.

Telitha Cumi North was born Nov. 16th, 1851. Was married to Moses Dorton April 29th, 1869.

She leaves a devoted husband who is now on the bed of affliction. Oh! how he misses her—you and I can never tell. But there's one and one only who can comfort him and take away this cloud of sadness and make it as bright as a summer day and that is our Savior, upon whom she leaned as her whole support and comfort.

Her ten children, Mrs. W. A. Church, Mrs. J. B. Collier, Mrs. Geo. Huffman, Mrs. R. K. Speake, Mrs. Joseph Pollard Mrs. Clayton Marsee, Messrs James T. William, Albert and Kinnaird Dorton all of this county, and Mrs. W. L. Huffman of Lexington, were all at her bedside when the Death Angel hovered around and carried her to rest, to that home which she has been preparing for thru all these years.

She also leaves four sisters, and two brothers, Mrs. Coleman Dunn, Messrs Milford and Grant North of Lincoln County and Mrs. J. F. Marsee, Mrs. C. T. Hendrickson and Mrs. Milton Deane of this county to mourn their loss.

She will be greatly missed by her friends and neighbors for she was loved by all who knew her.

She gave her heart to Jesus in her early years, confessing him she joined the Baptist church and lived a true christian life ever after.

She was a devoted Mother to her children, always telling and advising them not to think of the pleasures of this world but to prepare for that home in heaven where they could be with her and her Savior forever.

Her last words were that her path was now clear but it had been so hard to travel.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones in their dark hour but may they look to their heavenly Father for comfort.

The funeral services were held at the grave in the Lancaster cemetery by Rev. Strother and her remains were laid to rest beneath a mound of beautiful flowers.

"We cannot say goodbye Mother without a tear,
And yet we would not have you stay.
Since forth you go to the heavenly home,
And bid us come some day.

There came an angel to our home,
The home we loved so well,
What grief and sorrow in our home then,
No mortal tongue could tell.

It grasped our mother in its arms,
It then arose and said,
Your Mother is only born again,
You children think she's dead."

A CALL

For 80,000 Census Enumerators.

The Director of the Census, Hon. Sam L. Rogers, announces that 80,000 enumerators will be needed to take the next census. The work begins on January 2, and will last about two weeks in cities, and a month or more in rural districts. Rates of pay will vary, depending upon the locality and character of the district to be canvassed. The average pay per enumerator at the census of 1910 was about $70. At this coming census it will probably be not less than $100.

"Active, intelligent, and reliable men and women, not less than 18 years of age, are needed for this task," said Director Rogers, "and, in a sense, this is a call for volunteers. The importance of a complete and reliable census, especially in these critical times when more than ever before perhaps we need complete data regarding population, conditions, tendencies, and resources, can hardly be over-emphasized. The reorganization of the social and economic structure and the readjustment of international relations necessitated by the War must be based on accurate knowledge if we are to act wisely and deal justly with all classes and all interests. It is hoped, therefore, that public-spirited energetic people throughout the country will volunteer to act as census enumerators even though they may not care for the positions so far as the pay is concerned. I should be sorry to think, and I do not believe, that all our patriotism was used up by the War and none left for public service in times of peace."

Ill Health From Bad Teeth—Old.

Knowledge that ill health is caused by defective teeth is mentioned by the older literature, and has been recognized, perhaps for centuries, by medical and dental practitioners. Only during the last decade, however, has it received the prominence it deserves.

The following is taken from an article published by Dr. Benjamin Rush, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and in his day one of America's most noted physicians. This article must be considered truly remarkable because it was written before the discovery of bacteria and when the knowledge of disease was meager indeed.

Dr. Rush says: "Some time in the month of October 1801, I attended Miss A. C., with rheumatism in her hip joint, which yielded for a while to the several remedies for that disease. In the month of November it returned with great violence, accompanied with a severe toothache. Suspecting that the rheumatic affliction was excited by the pain in her tooth, which was decayed, I directed it to be extracted. The rheumatism immediately left her hip and she recovered in a few days. She has continued ever since to be free from it."

"Soon after this I was consulted by Mrs. J. R., who had been afflicted for several weeks with dyspepsia and toothache. Her tooth, tho no mark of decay appeared on it, was drawn by my advice. The next day she was relieved from her distressing stomach complaint and has continued ever since to enjoy good health. From the soundness of the external part of the tooth and the adjoining gum, there was no reason to suspect a discharge of matter from it had produced the disease in her stomach."

"Some time in the year 1801 I was consulted by the father of a young gentleman in Baltimore who had been afflicted with epilepsy. I inquired into the state of his teeth and was informed that several in his upper jaw were decayed. I directed them to be extracted and advised him after to lose a few ounces of blood at any time when he felt the preliminary symptoms of his fits. He followed my advice, in consequence of which I lately had the pleasure of hearing from his brother that he was perfectly cured."

"I have been made happy by discovering that I have only added to the observations of other physicians, in pointing out a connection between the extraction of decayed and diseased teeth and the cure of general diseases. Several cases of efficacy of that remedy in relieving headache and vertigo are mentioned by Dr. Darwin. Dr. Gater relates that Mr. Petit, a celebrated French surgeon, had cured intermittent fevers, which had resisted bark for months, and even years, by his prescription, and he quotes from his works two cases, one of consumption, the other of vertigo, both of long continuance, which were suddenly cured by the extraction of two decayed teeth in the former, and of two supernumerary teeth in the latter case."

"These facts, tho little attended to, should not surprise us, when we recollect how often the most distressing general diseases are brought on by very inconsiderable inlets of morbid excitement into the system. A small tumor, concealed in the fleshy part of the leg, has been known to bring on epilepsy. A trifling wound with a splinter or a nail, even after it has healed, has often produced a fatal tetanus. Many hundred facts of a similar nature are met with in the records of medicine."

"When we consider how often the teeth, when decayed, are exposed to irritation from hot and cold drinks and ailments, from pressure by mastication and from the cold air, and how intimate the connection of the mouth is with the whole system, I am disposed to believe they are often the unsuspected causes of general, and particularly of nervous diseases. When we add to the list of these morbid effects of the acrid and putrid matters which are sometimes discharged from the carious teeth, or by ulcers in the gums created by them, also the influence which both have in preventing mastication and the connection of that animal function with good health, I cannot help thinking that our success in the treatment of all chronic diseases would be very much promoted by directing our inquiries into the state of the teeth of sick people, and by advising their extraction in every case in which they are decayed. It is not necessary that they should be attended with pain or tend to produce diseases, for splinters, tumors and other irritants mentioned before often bring on disease and death, when they give no pain, and are the unsuspected cause of them."

This is only another illustration of the old saying: "There is nothing new under the sun."
(adv) M. S. HATFIELD, D. D. S.

We do not believe Garrard will refuse help to the Kentucky Children's Home.

AFTER-WAR ACTIVITIES

Of The American Red Cross.

Is the work of the Red Cross over? During August, the Bureau of After-Care of the Home Service Sections in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky looked after 5,898 disability and tuberculosis cases—an increase of 2,242 over the previous month.

The Red Cross helped the soldiers—now the soldiers are helping the Red Cross. Many discharged men have become Red Cross secretaries to help the "other fellow" and his family as he himself has been helped.

Queen Marie of Roumania is personally aiding the American Red Cross Commission to the Balkans in the distribution of relief supplies among destitute Rumanians. The queen has planned an American visit for the near future.

Most communities, at some time or other, are called upon to face an emergency or an overwhelming disaster. Whether through fire, flood, explosion, earthquake or epidemic, the American Red Cross of the future hopes to be prepared to meet the crisis. Organization of a disaster relief committee is being urged for every chapter.

"Don't Fall Behind!" This is the word about government insurance which the Red Cross is giving every discharged service man. Insurance may be re-instated at any time within eighteen months after the insured man's discharge from the army, navy or marine corps.

In the Third Roll Call, November 2 to 11, the American Red Cross will ask the people for a renewal of their allegiance for future service.

That the American Red Cross, through its Peace Time Program, will be instrumental in eliminating and preventing disease and sickness, is the opinion of Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the Executive Committee. "We have a great organization," he says, "that represents every one of the national interests, and we propose to put this energy behind the great movement for bringing these interests together."

Three thousand seven hundred and twelve women in the Lake Division have been awarded certificates for successful completion of the Red Cross course in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.

The government will care for the disabled soldier and sailor, but assistance of Home Service sections of the Red Cross is necessary to find the men who need this help. Individuals can assist by referring cases of which they know to the Home Service Section of the nearest chapter.

A membership of two million in the Junior Red Cross is the goal set for the Lake Division this year. Auxiliaries are now being formed and renewed throughout Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky schools. Junior members will be asked to help in the November 2 to 11 campaign for the Red Cross members.

WHEAT DISEASES UNDER CONTROL

Precautions Taken to Prevent Spread of Two Dreaded Foreign Foes of Plant.

STRAW AND STUBBLE BURNED

Experts Realize Possibility That Some Infested Spots May Have Escaped
Observation — Quarantine Is Avoided.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Indications are that the two dreaded foreign foes of wheat, flag smut and take-all, will not become widespread in the United States. The United States department of agriculture announces that the two states where these diseases appeared, Indiana and Illinois, have taken steps that will prevent the spread of the diseases from the infected fields and that should wipe out in a few years the infection in fields where it exists.

Indiana officials came to the recent hearing in Washington with adequate safeguards already placed. Shortly after the hearing, Illinois established similar safeguards. All the infected wheat in both states is under control and will be disinfected before any use whatever is made of it. All straw and stubble are to be burned, threshing machines are to be thoroughly disinfected and no wheat is to be grown in infected areas for several years.

But Fight Is Not Over.
Under these conditions full confidence is felt that neither of the diseases will spread from the diseased areas in Illinois and Indiana. That does not mean, however, that the fight against flag smut and take-all is over.
It is possible that one or both of the diseases exist this year in places where they have not been recognized. There is, however, no great probability that this is true. The department of agriculture and its co-operating agencies have been diligently on the lookout for these two diseases all summer and have found no evidences of them except in the two areas. Both flag smut and take-all occur in Illinois and only take-all in Indiana. The experts, however, realize the possibility that some infested spots may have escaped observation and it would not be surprising if diseased fields are found elsewhere next spring.

In the meantime there will be no letup in the work of preventing either of the diseases from getting a real foothold anywhere in the United States. The federal department is working with the authorities of Illinois and Indiana giving them every possible aid. Its pathologists are energetically studying the disease and its representatives are searching the country over to make

Good Crop of Wheat in Southern Indiana.

certain whether or not there are other infested areas and to see that effective measures of control are available if any such areas are discovered.

Prompt State Action Prevents Quarantine.

The co-operation of state authorities is essential in order to prevent hardship if further infestations should be discovered. Only the prompt action of Indiana and Illinois prevented the placing of a quarantine against all the wheat in those states, a measure which would have meant hardship, not only to all the wheat growers in the two states, but to dealers, millers and consumers. Even prompt state action will be desirable if either of the diseases is found later to exist in any other state.

Neither of these diseases is likely to find its way into the country again from outside sources. The department of agriculture has established quarantine regulations against all the rest of the world in which either of the diseases exists. No small grain can come in for any purpose unless it has been thoroughly sterilized with steam heat.
It is the purpose of the department,
say its officials, to make the cleanup of these plant plagues as thorough and as prompt as it did the foot-and-mouth disease of animals a few years ago.

Depreciation of Machinery.

Did you ever think of the relation of the farmer's bank account to the tool shed? Machinery depreciates faster in the weather than it does in use. The time saved by having a rust-free implement will soon pay for the shed.

SUGAR-BEET THRIPS HARMFUL TO PLANTS

Spraying is Most Effective Means of Controlling Pest.

Besides Doing Much Damage in Greenhouse Insect Also Injures Outdoor Plants—Apply Spray on Dull or Cloudy Day.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The sugar-beet thrips is an important insect recognized as a greenhouse pest and also injuring outdoor plants, principally sugar beets and sugar cane. The insect is dark brown or black in color, and about 1.5 millimeters in length. The injury caused is similar to that of other species, such as the onion thrips and bean thrips. The plant is attacked by the adults and by the nymphs, or young, in the same manner. The leaf cells are pierced and the plant juices withdrawn, causing the cells to shrivel and turn white. When a number of these cells are destroyed they appear as irregular white or light-brown spots. If the attack is severe, the whole leaf surface becomes invested by these spots and finally shrivels and dies.

Harvesting Sugar-Beet Seed.

Spraying has been found to be the most effective means of controlling this insect, both in the greenhouse and out of doors. The following solution used in one experiment killed all adult insects and about 85 per cent of the nymphs.

Nicotine sulphate (ounces) 1
Fish-oil soap (pounds) 4
Water (gallons) 50

The spray should be applied to both sides of the leaves; if possible, on a dull or cloudy day. The adults are not so active at this time and are, therefore, less likely to move out of reach of the spray.

In the greenhouse the sugar-beet thrips may be held in check by the application of a strong spray of water to the foliage. This washes the younger stages from the leaf; and as these are unable to reach the food plant again, they soon die.

VETCH CROP IN HOME GARDEN

Spaded or Hoed Under It Will Assist in Keeping Soil Supplied With Needed Humus.

A few cents' worth of vetch seed planted in the garden each year and spaded or hoed under as a green manure crop will keep the soil supplied with humus and, to a large extent, with nitrogen. The vetch should be kept growing at all times in all available spaces.

For example, if early corn or cabbage are not removed in time to allow for a follow-up crop, vetch can be planted between the rows at the time of the last cultivation. It will then be large enough to spade under in the fall or spring. Another good way to use vetch is to sow it in the fall or spring when the garden is being spaded in preparation for tomatoes.

By the time the tomato plants are ready to set, the vetch will be well under way. If the vetch is not more than three or four inches high, places can be cleared at proper distances for planting the tomatoes by turning under a spade or two of soil. Then when the vetch left between the tomatoes is six or eight inches high, it can be hoed in. Since it is green and tender, this is no great task and the vetch will soon rot. If vetch is used in this way, the soil should be inoculated with the necessary bacteria. Instructions for doing this simple work can be had upon application to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

PUTTING EAR CORN IN SILO

Best to Add Some Stalks Because They Furnish Much Sugar Essential to Fermentation.

It has been found practical to ensile soft corn ears without any stalks, but it is better to add some stalks because they furnish much sugar which is essential to proper fermentation. Tests made at Ames on the Iowa station show that an immense amount of corn can be stored away in a silo this way, that it will not spoil, and that it makes an exceedingly rich feed. It should be fed as a concentrate and not as a roughage. The ears should be cut fine and thoroughly tramped in the silo when filling. Do not let any spoiled ears get in, or too big a proportion of mature corn, as this does not pack and culls so well.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the illa afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble. The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers, of your blood. Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Merrem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your drugist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Merrem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Merrem Oil. After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

Oh, Be Careful, Girls!
Glad would be villain. He looks all right, but he is not. He wears evening dress and his hair is shining. Rainbow's Formation.
While it is true that the beautiful colors displayed by the rainbow are due to the passage of light through raindrops, the popular conception that the drops are directly in line between the sun and the bow is incorrect, according to scientists. The light enters the raindrop and is refracted and reflected back to form the bow. In this passage through the drop the different colors are produced which, blended, make our ordinary white light.

The Wonderful Congo.
The Congo is the most wonderful system of waterways on the face of the globe. It has twice the extent of the navigable waters of the Mississippi and its tributaries and three times its population. Professor Lapoint, once director of the Museum of Natural History at Brussels, said that its fertile valleys were destined to be the granary of the world.

Same Old Circus.
Remember the old farmer woman with the umbrella and the funny clothes who wanders round the ring just after the show begins, looking desperately into the audience calling "Albert! Albert, where are you, Albert?" And the policeman tells her to move on and she sits up the policeman and her wife and petti-coats come off (down to the red flannel one) and she isn't mild or a lady either, after all? Well, she is still there.—Everybody's Magazine.

Swift Locomotion.
Men can run about 32 feet a second that being the world's record for a hundred yard sprint. Contrary to common supposition, skaters are no swifter than runners, the world's record for both being precisely the same—0.25 seconds for a hundred yards. Runners on skis have, however, made as much as 72 feet a second, and in jumping on skis more than 100 feet a second is attained.

Ups and Downs.
Tourist—"Anything remarkable about this hill, driver?" Driver—"There's nothing peculiar about the hill itself, but there's a queer story connected with it. Driver—"It is supposed that they went down on the other side, sir."

CHOOSING BEST BREED OF HOGS

Whichever One the Farmer Decides Upon He Should Develop to Highest Standard.

LARD TYPE MOST POPULAR

At Present Time Animals Weighing From 175 to 250 Pounds Command Highest Prices—Bacon Hog Is Not Raised Extensively.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

There is no best breed of swine. Some breeds are superior to others in certain respects and one breed may be better adapted than another to certain local conditions. The essential point is that after the farmer has once decided upon the kind of hog to raise he should stick to this decision and develop the chosen breed to its highest possible standard. It is not feasible for one individual to raise several different breeds and bring them to perfection. In making his choice, too, the farmer should be guided by the kind of breeds already established in his locality. If he selects one of these he is not likely to make a mistake.

Two Types of Swine.
There are two distinct types of swine, namely, the lard and the bacon types. Swine of the lard type far outnumber those of the bacon type in the United States. The lard type is preferred by the people of this country, consequently the majority of feeders produce a rapid-maturing, heavy-fleshed lard type. The bacon type is not raised extensively in the United States. The production of choice bacon is more general in those sections where the feed of the hog is more varied and where care is not relied upon as the principal factor for hogs.

The principal breeds of the lard type are the Poland-China, Berkshire, Chester White, Duroc-Jersey and Hampshire. The lard type of hog is low set and compact, with a very wide and deep body. The shoulders should be full although not coarse, with full hind quarters and hams carried out straight to the tail and thick-fleshed down to the hock. The flesh should be thick and evenly distributed throughout the body.

The size and weight are largely determined by market conditions. At present pigs weighing from 175 to 250 pounds ordinarily command the highest prices.

Best Bacon Types.
The principal breeds of the bacon type are the Tamworth and large Yorkshire, both of British origin. The bacon type is very different from the lard type, being longer in leg and body, with less width of back and lighter in the shoulders and neck. The first impression that this type conveys is one of leanness and linkings. Much emphasis is laid on the development of side, because it is the side of the hog that is used for the production of bacon. On the other hand, large, heavy hams are not desirable on a bacon hog.

SHIP EGGS BY PARCEL POST

Weight of Single Dozen of Eggs Will Run From 2 to 3 Pounds, Depending on Packing.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Average hens' eggs will weigh about 1½ pounds to the dozen, or 2 ounces apiece. The weight of a single dozen of eggs in a carton properly packed and wrapped for mailing will run from 2 to 3 pounds, depending on the nature of the particular container, the size of the eggs, and the packing and wrapping used. If the container be a very light one and the eggs small, the parcel may fall within the 2-pound limit, and the postage, therefore, within the first and second zones, or 150-mile limit, it would be 6 cents. Most parcels containing a dozen eggs will exceed 2 pounds but will not reach 3; therefore the postage on them will be 7 cents within the first and second zones. A parcel containing 2 dozen eggs will add perhaps 2 cents to the postage, though sometimes only 1 cent, depending on the nature of the container and the packing and wrapping.

Use Every Preventive Measure and See That Proper Precautions Are Taken.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Sometimes we cannot prevent outbreaks of live stock diseases on our farms, but we can and should always use every preventive measure and see that proper precautions are taken when the disease first makes its appearance.

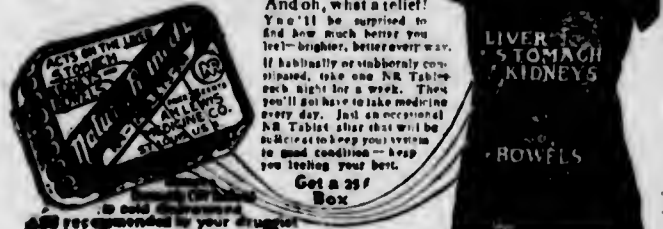

Want to Feel Just Right?

— Take an NR Tonight —

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "loggy," headachy, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

TROUBLE IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your over-worked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Pills, oil, salts, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test. Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every day. If habitually or stubbornly constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week. Then you'll get into the habit of taking medicine every day. Just an occasional NR Tablet after that will be sufficient to keep you steady to good condition—keep you feeling your best.

Value of Wrestling.
Only in Japan has the value of wrestling been universally recognized, and the result is that the average Japanese physique is unrivaled for power, agility and the internal health that so largely depends on the vitality and balanced development of the inner muscles of the lower part of the body.

Turtle Uastops Sewer.
To open a stopped up sewer pipe, Frank Ward of Richmond, Mo., caught a small turtle and cut a small hole in its shell. Then he tied a string in the hole and started the turtle through the sewer pipe. Whenever the turtle stopped a pull on the string started it clawing its way forward again until the pipe was clear.

Legend of Origin of Flowers.
In Sussex, England, theilly of the valley is said to be a memorial of the little St. Leonard fought with a dragon. The holy man encountered the monster in the forest and battled with it for three days. At last the saint was victorious though wounded seriously, and a herover his blood dripped upon the ground there sprang up flowers of the valley in profusion. In France the lily of the valley is said to have sprung from the Virgin's tears.

FOR Spring Fever take A. I. M.

If your system has become run-down or if you are suffering with "Spring Fever" you need Acid Iron Mineral to build up your blood.

Physicians prescribe Acid Iron Mineral because it is natural liquid iron, and will not injure the teeth or cause ill effects. It is the most powerful iron tonic known and comes to you just as it is prepared by nature in the wonderful deposits of Mississippi. Do not confuse A. I. M. with chemically prepared tablets. Mankind's Debt to Reading.
"Have you ever rightly considered what the mere ability to read means?" once asked James Russell Lowell, and elaborated his own question: "That it is the key which admits us to the whole world of thought and fancy and imagination? to the company of saint and sage, of the wisest and the whitest at their wisest and whitest moment? That it enables us to see with the keenest eyes, hear with the finest ears, and listen to the sweetest voices of all time? More than that it annihilates time and space for us."

Protests Seizure of Book.
A deed book of New York city more than 200 years old, in possession of J. E. Spammuth, a second-hand dealer of Pottsville, Pa., has been seized by authority of New York city officials. The book covers the period from 1687 to 1891, and contains the titles to most of the property in the financial district, worth hundreds of millions. Spammuth says he bought the book from an antiquarian and will contest the right of the city to seize it.

Commonwealths and States.
Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Kentucky are officially styled commonwealths, although there seems to be no particular reason except custom, as it has practically the same meaning as state. A commonwealth is a democratic form of government, such as that of each state of the Union, the four using the name commonwealth not differing from the others. As far back as 1630 the Massachusetts colony was spoken of as the commonwealth.

Her Other Boarder.

Tillie Clinger says that in asking for accommodations at a strange place yesterday she inquired if there were any other boarders. "No," replied the landlady, "unless it's my husband, and he can quit any time he wants to."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

The Six Senses.

In a primary school examination, a question about the senses was answered by a bright pupil in this fashion: "The five senses are sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning and coughing. By a sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is sneezing."—Boston Transcript.

Artesian Wells.

The Chinese have obtained water through means of artesian wells for over 1,000 years. One of the most famous wells in existence is that at Grenelle. In the outskirts of Paris, where the water is brought from a depth of 1,708 feet. It yields 540,000 gallons of water a minute. Many years ago a well in Persia was sunk to the depth of 3,100 feet.

Optimistic Thought.

Thou shalt in a young man be better than road impedence.

Effect Not Appreciated.

Instead of candles, Lucille's mother placed six large marshmallows on top of her birthday cake. When little Boris returned from the party her mother said: "Well did you all have a jolly good time?" and she replied: "Yes, all but the cake. Oh, mother, that cake looked so bad, just like a cemetery. It had little tombstones on it."

The Works of Peace.

There remains to us a great duty of defense and preservation; and there is open to us also a noble pursuit, to which the spirit of the times strongly invites us. Let us advance the arts of peace and the works of peace. Let us develop the resources of our land, call forth its powers, build up its institutions, promote all its great interests, and see whether we, also, in our day and generation, may not perform something worthy to be remembered.—Daniel Webster.

First Printed Book.

According to Pettigrew, the first book printed in type was the Latin Bible. It was printed by John Gutenberg at Mayence, about 1455. There are only 26 copies of this edition known to exist, and the workmanship in type, ink, and paper, were better than in any subsequent edition for two hundred years.

Bonaparte's Short Career.

In 1802, on August 2, Napoleon Bonaparte was declared consul of France for life. Thirteen years to the day, the convention between the representatives of Great Britain, Prussia, Austria and Russia declared Bonaparte, then emperor of the French, to be a prisoner of the allies and entrusted Great Britain with his custody.

Vast British Empire.

Including all her possessions, the British empire has the largest territory. It had at the beginning of the war a total area of 13,123,712 square miles, of which 121,512 are in Europe, 2,187,550 in Asia, 3,018,245 in North America, 8,000 in Central America, 12,000 in the West Indies, 97,800 in South America and 3,214,687 in Australasia.

Origin of "White Elephant."

The king of Siam in years gone by would send a white elephant to a courtier whom he disliked and whose fortune he wished to destroy. The man could not sell the elephant and the expense of keeping it eventually "broke him up." From that custom was handed down our present day saying, "He's got a white elephant on his hands."

Had Enough of the Zoo.

Smithson—"Come with me to the zoo." Phlipston—"No, thank you; I'll stay at home. My eldest daughter does the kangaroo walk, my second daughter talks like a parrot, my son laughs like a hyena, my wife watches me like a hawk, my cook is cross as a bear, and my mother-in-law says I'm an old gorilla. When I go anywhere I want a change."

Ascertaining Mountain Heights.

The height of mountains is ascertained by barometric observation, showing the pressure of atmosphere at the lower and higher levels. An instrument called the mountain barometer is graduated especially for this purpose. It can also be done with a leveling instrument and theodolite, but either way requires technical knowledge.

Was Bound to Go Along.

Harry's father and a friend were going for a walk one Sunday afternoon, and Harry insisted on going along. His father said he would give him a nickel if he stayed home. Harry refused. The father then promised to bring him back a bicycle if he stayed at home and was a good boy. Harry pondered this for a moment and replied: "No, I'll go along and ride it back."

Snakes Numerous in Idaho.

Pennsylvania, one of the most prolific sections for rattlers, has at least one large snakeskin tannery and keeps hosts of people slaughtering rattlesnakes. Idaho, however, is the former rattlesnake section of the country. Idaho has great ridges of rocks, in which are deep holes, cracks and caves. Herein rattlers breed by the eternal thousands and offer a vast industry for rattler harvesters.

Interesting Old Bible.

One of the original owners of the Trevello Bible, living in the eighteenth century, had made notations on the fly leaf concerning "John, who was born on Friday the 10th of February, 1761, at a quarter after eight at night, was baptized at Crossgate church on March 10 following, by the Reverend Mr. Wheeler, who died of smallpox, 12th April, 1760, and was buried the next day at Crossgate church, aged eight weeks and five days." Other births, marriages and deaths were noted as far back as 1701-1702.

"Amen Corner."

The phrase "amen corner," is said to have originated in London, where, at the end of Paternoster row, the monks at one time finished their recitation of the "Pater Noster" as they went in procession on Corpus Christi day to St. Paul's cathedral. They began in Paternoster row with the Lord's prayer in Latin, continuing it to the end of the street, and then said "amen" at the corner of the row. As used in this country the phrase describes the corner of a church where the elderly members sit and pronounce the word "amen" at intervals.

WOMEN AND GIRLS WHO ARE MEMBERS OF CLUBS ARE ENCOURAGED TO GROW HERBS

Club Girl in Her Herb Garden—Sage Plant Before Cutting.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The old-fashioned kitchen garden was not considered complete without its small collection of "pot-herbs"—sage, thyme, and other medicinal and savory herbs. French cooking is noted for its fine flavor, and this is largely because French cooks excel in the skillful use of herbs.

The United States department of agriculture is encouraging women and girls who are members of clubs or organized by extension workers to grow more savory herbs. Not only is the daily diet varied by the use of "pot-herbs," but in nearly all communities the surplus is easily marketed.

Selecting and Preparing Soil.

Herbs usually occupy the same ground for some years, and should be conveniently located in one corner or at one side of the regular garden. It is a good plan to apply a quantity of well-rotted manure to the soil in the autumn and spade it in deeply. If the soil can be trenched or broken two spadings in depth, all the better, as this will break up the subsoil and give the roots more space for development. One good method is to mark off the rows where the plants are to be set, then remove the top soil and place it to one side; then spread in the furrow and spaded into the subsoil. The top soil is then returned and allowed to settle a few days before the plants are set out. One of the main things to consider in placing the perennials or permanent plants together in one row or corner where they will not be disturbed. The biennials may be placed next, and the annuals in a collection by themselves.

The general cultural methods are practically the same for all—good, clean cultivation during the summer, and a mulch of leaves, straw or manure around the plants during the winter. The mulch protects them from winter-killing, and at the same time adds fertility for next season's growth.

Sage, tarragon, mint, anise, caraway and dill are the herbs found most often on the markets, but in growing for commercial purposes it is best to learn what particular herbs are most in demand in the locality.

How to Grow Some Varieties.

Anise is an annual and the seeds do not retain their vitality after the second year, so they should be strictly fresh when planted. The seeds should be sown indoors and the young plants transplanted. They may also be sown in the open ground and thinned 12 to 14 inches apart in the row. The plants grow to a height of about two feet. The seeds are borne in heads which should be cut from the plants when the seeds are nearly ripe.

The seeds of anise are used for flavoring, especially in cookies, and for sprinkling over cakes when sugar or frosting is used.

Caraway seeds are usually planted in the garden, but should be sown early in the spring. The plants should be thinned to about 15 or 18 inches in the row. Sometimes seeds are produced the first season, but more often not until the second season. The seeds are used for flavoring bread and pastry. The seeds are saved in the same way as those of anise.

The culture and the uses of dill are very much the same as those for caraway. The leaves are also used for flavoring soups. The tender leaves and stems, together with the seed heads, are dried and used for flavoring cucumber pickles, making the famous commercial "dill" pickles. For home use watermelon rind and chayotes, when treated with brine and dill, make an excellent pickle.

Sage is one of the oldest and most common of the garden herbs. The plants live for several years if protected from extreme cold, and are most easily started by taking rooted cuttings from the side of an old plant. In rich soil the plants grow to a great size, three and four feet across. For this reason they should be given plenty of space. One plant will usually produce all the sage required by a family. The broad-leaved variety is commonly grown. Two or three cuttings of the young tender shoots can be made during the season. As a rule, the tender tips of the branches are cut about four inches in length and tied in small bunches to dry. Sage is used especially for flavoring pork sausage and in dressings for poultry.

Other savory herbs which are desirable for home use or marketing are mint, tarragon, sweet basil, dwarf basil, coriander, catnip, thyme, horseradish, summer savory, sweet fennel and sweet marjoram.

Curing and Storing Herbs.

The most important point in connection with producing good savory herbs is proper curing. The tender stems, leaves and flowers, where included, should be taken from the plants at the proper stage and then dried in the shade. A very good plan is to tie them in small bunches, allowing some space on the string between each bunch, then roll loosely in a piece of paper, leaving both ends of the roll open so that the air will pass through. The roll may be held by rubber bands or short pieces of string and hung up in the shade to dry. In order to prevent the bunches of herbs sliding out of the paper the string should be attached to the roll, or whatever they are to be hung upon, and then wrapped around the roll of paper and tied. After being thoroughly dry, the herbs should be taken down and each individual bunch of herbs wrapped in paraffin paper to retain its color and flavor and also to protect the herbs from dust.

For marketing, the small packages can be packed in postpaid boxes in any desired number. They are usually sold by the dozen. Much depends upon the attractiveness and appearance of the herbs when they are put up for the market. Exposure to dust does not confer to marketable ideas. Care should be taken that the herbs do not become crushed in handling.

GOOD ICELESS REFRIGERATOR

Household Convenience Are Inexpensive and Easily Constructed—Ice Not Needed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Are you having trouble this summer because you can't keep food cool without ice and ice you cannot get?

Send to the U. S. department of agriculture for Farmers' Bulletin #27 and get directions for making "An Iceless Refrigerator." It can be made easily and will cool greatly in keeping meats, fruits and vegetables cool, and will extend the period for keeping milk and butter. It costs little to build, the refrigerator and nothing to operate it.

A little kerosene in the wash boiler helps to whiten the clothes.

If china is carefully wrapped and hotted before using it will last longer.

Soap and water will take the paint from woodwork. You can easily remove finger marks by rubbing them with a piece of clean flannel dipped into kerosene.

You can clean your coral beads beautifully by washing them in warm borax water, using one teaspoonful of borax to one pint of water, then rinsing in tepid water. Dry by rolling in a soft towel.

HERE'S A BANKER WHO KNOWS TRUE VALUE OF W. S. S.

ADVISES PATRONS TO TAKE SAVINGS FROM BANK AND INVEST IN CERTIFICATES.

BANK PROFITS IN THE END

Man Who Once Has a Savings Account Never Allows It to Lapse For Long.

Here is a banker who has looked through and beyond the U. S. Government's Thrift campaign. He has seen that while the success of the present campaign for the sale of Treasury Savings Certificates may for a brief while affect the account of his savings deposits, in the end the campaign inures to the benefit of the individual saver, the bank and the community. "I invariably advise," said George W. Friend, cashier of the Citizens Bank at Cole Camp, Mo., "that deposits in our savings department can place their money to better advantage by buying War Savings Bonds and the 100 Treasury Savings Certificates. "The average man who once has a savings account in a bank is never content until he restores it after withdrawing his savings. The 100 Certificates will pay 4 1/2 per cent if held until maturity, a greater interest than we can pay for deposits. And when one of our small patrons, by putting his savings account in our bank with 100 other savings, is able to make an investment that will place him in the big class, then we have a big and permanent patron. That is one reason why the bankers get behind this Thrift campaign now being waged by Uncle Sam. And this does not take into consideration the patriotic duty we all owe to one another and to our country."

Mr. Friend is president of the Kansas City Division of the Missouri Bankers' Association.

The quota fixed for the Eighth Federal Reserve District for the four months' campaign ending January 1, 1920, is $5,000,000. Of this Missouri's allotment is $2,000,000, with $500,000 added for the city of St. Louis. Kentucky's allotment is $1,500,000, while Arkansas is expected to raise $1,000,000.

The indications are that each unit will exceed its quota. Missouri is now leading in sales for September, while Arkansas and Kentucky are making splendid showings.

THE MULTIPLYING DOLLAR.

Manay Now, While It Is Cheap, Will Return Manifold, If Wisely Invested.

One of the best arguments for the investment of money in good securities at this time is the point—the full value of the dollar invested.

A dollar is worth what you can get for it.

A dollar now isn't worth much because you can't get much for it. It is today worth in purchasing power 60 cents as compared with five years ago. That dollar will in five years get back to its one hundred cents.

If a dollar is invested now, when it matures it will be worth twice as much, or $2, hence why would not $420 invested this month, have, in five years from now, almost double purchasing power, in addition to whatever interest may be earned between now and that time?

The above line of argument will appeal to a lot of people, especially those who are very careful with their savings.

If a man has any debts to pay, now is a good time to pay, because they can be paid with cheap dollars, but it is a poor time to contract debts if they mature in four or five years, because debts will have then to be paid with dollars which are worth more in purchasing power than at present.

Of all times for investment, the present is the best, because of the above facts.

REMEDY IN THE PEOPLES' HANDS

The New York Tribune says: "The testimony of the merchant is that despite high prices the American people are spending money up a much larger scale and for more expensive articles than ever before. The old restraints seem to be thrown aside and money is appreciated only as a means to indulge in some new extravagance. The remedy for the high prices lies in the hands of the people and it is thrift."

EXTRAVAGANCE A CAUSE.

Senator Williams of Mississippi added his testimony to that already quoted when he said in the senate: "The people in the United States are more extravagant than formerly. Thrift and economy must be practiced."

The boy or girl who adds a War Savings Stamp to his or her savings is on the path to higher business efficiency and all the desirable things that money brings.

Encouraging Bolshevism

Everything that falsely encourages unrest also encourages bolshevism.

Misunderstanding of American industrial organization, and of its benefits to mankind, leads to unrest, dissatisfaction, and radicalism.

For example, the Federal Trade Commission tells the public that the large packers had an agreed price for lard substitute (made of cotton-seed oil.)

It reproduces letters taken from the files of one of the packers, showing that such agreed price existed.

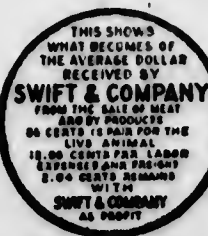

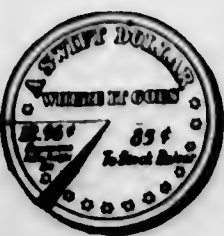

But it failed to mention that the agreed price was determined at the request of and in co-operation with the Food Administration!

Even the Department of Justice, in its unjust attempt to create prejudice against the packers, has made public these same letters, with no explanation.

How long must this kind of misrepresentation continue? In so far as it is believed, it not only breeds discontent, but results in injustice to our industry.

Good Man for A' Thet.

Thomas Jefferson, according to Wil-dona M. Curtis, one of his biographers, was devoid of a sense of humor. Says the latter: "He rarely told a story and seldom enjoyed one, and witticisms were wanted in his presence."

Better Late Than Never.

The stranger wedding I ever saw was that of an aged aunt, who in her youth had had a suitor who went off to make his fortune and never returned until, old and infirm, but wealthy, he returned to claim his old sweetheart, who was so feeble she had to remain in a wheel chair during the ceremony.

Describing a Giant.

The mathematical man can see the fun and mistakes in calculating the size of things. No one has ever given me an impression of bulk such as that of the late Professor Clifford--a famous mathematician and an occasional humorist. In a light-hearted essay he described the giant whose favorite food was bread and butter sprinkled with light brown horses. --London Chronicle.

Result of Extravagance.

These are not the necessities of life;
they can scarcely be called the routine necessities; and yet, only because they look pretty, how many want to have them! By these, and other extravagances, the general are reduced to poverty, and forced to borrow of those whom they formerly despised, but who, through industry and frugality, have maintained their standing. In which case it appears plainly that "A plow-man on his legs is higher than a gentleman on his knees." as Poor Richard says. --Benjamin Franklin.

Evil.

If evil is inevitable, how are the wicked accountable? Now, why do we evil men wicked at all? Evil is inevitable, but it is also remediable. --Hos-ace Mann.

Dead Air and Disease.

Dr. Leonard Hill, whose experiments a few years ago proved to the world that it is not impure air but still, hu-mid, dead air that induces disease, delivered recently a lecture on infant mortality before the Royal Society of Arts. In this he said that babies suffer from being too much clothed as well as from being improperly fed.
They should not be kept too warm or too quiet, but should be allowed at times to be quite naked and should be played with just to give them exercise.
